Unbeaten Teams Play Sensational Game in Drizzling Rain; Davies Proves Star Until Knocked Unconscious Near End of the First Half

By Ray McCarthy
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25.—Twenty-two mud-caked football warriors representing the University of Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania State College, battled fiercely for an hour to a draw on Forbes Field this afternoon. When the final whistle blew the two teams were deadlocked in iron-bound grips in mid-field, and in all of the time they had struggled up and down the field, neither side was able to put over a score. The 0 to 0 tie was just about what the score should have been, so evenly did the two elevens play.

As the game resulted everybody went away well satisfied, for it would have been unfair to either side to have lost out on this rain-soaked gridiron today on which the mud was several inches deep and which was as slippery as a ballroom floor. A drizzling rain fell throughout the contest. Nevertheless everybody was sorely disappointed that two great teams such as these did not have a good day to fight it out. Any number of things then could have resulted and probably would have, judging from what was shown in this issue.

In the first place the handling of the ball by the players of both sides was nothing short of remarkable under the conditions. Only a dozen fumbles occurred during the entire game, Pitt making five of these and State seven. Also the fine hard running of both back fields was skillfully executed, well done in this respect Tommy Davies, the Pitt back, was easily the class of them all.

Davies Knocked Unconscious
The way Davies cut in on tackle on the dead run without shuffling his stride and in the manner in which he eluded tacklers in the open gave the spectators one feature at least to talk about. Towards the close of the second period Davies was tackled so violently he lost his senses and had to be removed from the contest. He didn't recover until the struggle was nearly over. So that after his withdrawal Pittsburgh was severely handicapped and in the second half was outplayed.

Little Charlie Way, who was expected to furnish all of the excitement in company with Davies, never had in real chance. When he set out for a run and attempted to execute his famous side jump in avoiding a tackler he was invariably brought down to the flat of his back. The State speed man did get several long gains, particularly in the second half, but he never had an opportunity to show his usual brilliant turn in open field running any more than Davies.

The tackling of both teams, as was expected, was hard and sure and this, coupled with the exceedingly heavy going, gave the running game a decided handicap. Another feature of the affair was the punting of Davies and Byers for Pittsburgh and Hess and Killinger for State.

All things considered, the players deserve credit for their exhibition, such lucking up of a line as Stein, the Pittsburgh captain, and Griffiths, of Penn State, showed on this watery field was astonishing.

Edge Belongs to Pitt
As far as the edge is concerned it probably belongs to Pittsburgh. It made twelve first downs to State's eight. The Panthers gained 175 yards to the opposition's 125. In the matter of punting the locals also had a slight advantage.

In the second quarter Pittsburgh had the ball on State's 4-yard line on the second down and apparently was on its way to a touchdown when Captain Stein made a poor pass to Davies, who recovered the ball on his 12-yard line. From there the Blue run got going and after a series of gains, including a 15-yard dash by Davies dropped back to his 11-yard line and attempted a goal from place, which he missed by inches.

It seemed to the spectators that a mistake level in not dropping further back from the scrimmage line. As it was he was within six yards of the line and had to hurry his kick somewhat.

Early in the first quarter Penn State had the ball on Pitt's 12-yard line when a fumble by Haines enabled Pittsburgh to regain possession of the leather and to punt out of danger. In the final period, with only a few minutes of play left, Penn State had the ball on Pitt's 13-yard line, third down and little less than a 12 to go, on a run.

We thought Killinger would try for a field goal at this point as he was almost directly in front of the goal posts, but instead he cutled around to turn the leather over to Davies. In the way through the mud, but never even got near the line of scrimmage. Stein met him as he neared the end and tossed him for a 5-yard loss. It was then that State said good-bye to victory.

Griffiths Recovers Fumble
Davies kicked off for Pittsburgh. Killinger taking the ball on his 20-yard line and running it back thirteen yards. Way failed to gain an end run, but Haines jammed his way through tackle for five yards. Way then hit on his left tackle for first down. At this point Killinger turned right end for eight yards, but Pitt held and Hess punted.

Immediately Davies was given the ball, and he picked up eleven yards on an off-tackle play. Way rushed on the left end and the body. From this point on it was a slashing affair with first one and then the other taking the lead. At the end of the fifth round, the judges agreed that the bout was a draw.

Rutgers Eleven Bows to Detroit By 27 to 0 Score

DETROIT, Nov. 25.—The plunging ability of two backfield men, who smashed holes in the Rutgers defense almost at will, gave the University of Detroit football team a 27 to 0 victory over Rutgers here this afternoon.

Two of Detroit's touchdowns were the result of consistent line drives which carried the ball to within striking distance of the Rutgers goal line. Forward passes completed the scoring attempts. The other two followed spectacular plays and were more or less unexpected.

Russell and McKenna, Detroit halfbacks, alternated at carrying the ball into Rutgers territory in the opening period. The same two men completed the forward pass which made the first score. In the third period a similar advance netted a similar result, except that Curtin, Detroit left end, received the forward pass behind the Rutgers goal line.

Snow Forces Army's Football Squad Indoors for Last Drill

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Army's drive for the Navy contest came to a close this morning when Coach Charlie Daly sent his men through their paces in a signal drill. Frigid weather conditions, which have prevailed here for five days, still continued, snow covering the "Plains" this morning. This necessitated sending the men into the big riding hall, and the signal drill lacked speed and smoothness. The final kicking drill was also hampered through lack of overhand space.

In spite of the weather handicap, the soldiers are cheerful and followers of the team are hopeful that it will make a good showing on the Polo Grounds Saturday. Army folk concede the Navy some advantage in the line, but it is felt that the West Pointers have a strong backfield in Smythe, Lawrence and French. White is a fair quarterback and a good field general.

Pastor Referees Three Games in Single Day

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 25.—The Rev. Ralph W. Owen, associate pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, established a Kentucky football record here today when he refereed a double-header, the fourth period when he refereed at three regularly scheduled games.

At 1:30 p.m. acted as referee at the Lexington High-Somerset High contest. In the afternoon he refereed a double-header, the first between Transylvania and Chattanooga, the second between two class teams of the University of Kentucky.

W. and J. Wallops West Virginians; Stein Proves Star

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 25.—Russell Stein, Washington and Jefferson's giant left tackle, stamped himself as one of the best players of the year when he garnered four touchdowns against West Virginia University this afternoon in the annual Thanksgiving Day battle on College Field. The final tally was 28 to 0, and Stein made all of the Presidents' touchdowns. Captain Garbisch adding the four extra points, on goals after the touchdowns.

The result was an upset. Crippled by the loss of two of their star backs, Elston and McLaughlin, both of whom were put out of commission in the Pitt game, Washington and Jefferson was not expected to have a chance to win.

Navy Players Leave For Big Game Here: Folwell Is Confident

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 25.—The football squad which will battle for the Navy against the Army in New York on Saturday was given a most enthusiastic review this afternoon. The players and coaches were dragged to the station by the midshipmen, and a quarter of an hour was spent in short speeches from the players and their mentors. Coach Folwell told the midshipmen that such support made them feel they must beat the Army.

This morning the Navy boat led two Army men in an impromptu procession around the academy grounds. The bareback experts from the regiment rode the mules, and the procession was headed by the academy jazz band. It will be at the Polo Grounds.
